U.S. Conference of Mayors President Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter to lead Delegation of Mayors During 2012 Democratic National Convention in Charlotte

Mayors to Hold Press Availability to Discuss How to Build a Better America

Charlotte, NC – The President of the U.S. Conference of Mayors (USCM), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will lead a group of U.S. mayors during the 2012 Democratic National Convention in Charlotte. The USCM will hold a press availability on Tuesday, September 4 from 12:30-1:00 pm ET at the Omni Hotel. They will be discussing the need to invest in job creation, infrastructure, and education as part of USCM’s Build a Better America campaign. Below are more details.

Tuesday, September 4
12:00-2:00pm ET U.S. Conference of Mayors Luncheon Honoring the Nation’s Mayors (Open Press) Location: Omni Hotel, Grand Ball Room
132 East Trade Street, Charlotte NC

12:30-1:00pm ET Press Availability: Mayors to Discuss How to “Build a Better America” Location: Omni Hotel, Outside Grand Ballroom
132 East Trade Street, Charlotte NC

Participating Mayors (USCM Leadership):
USCM President Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter
USCM Second Vice President Sacramento Mayor Kevin Johnson
Other invited mayors (attendance TBD):
USCM Past President Los Angeles Mayor & DNC Convention Chair Antonio Villaraigosa;
DNC Convention Host Charlotte Mayor Anthony Foxx; National Conference of Democratic Mayors President & DNC Vice Chair Minneapolis Mayor R.T. Rybak; and at least 20 other democratic mayors.

Note: Media interested in interviewing Mayor Nutter during the DNC Convention should contact Elena Temple Webb at: etemple@usmayors.org. Mayors interested in covering the luncheon & press availability should RSVP to Lina Garcia at: lgarcia@usmayors.org.

###